JSEE

JSEE has established in 1952 and been actively promoting the quality of engineering education with the joint efforts of universities, colleges of engineering, government laboratories and industrial companies. JSEE has established cooperative agreement with the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE), the European Society for Engineering Education (SEFI), and the Korean Society for Engineering Education (KSEE), and a member society of the International Association for Continuing Engineering Education (IACEE), the Association for Engineering Education in Southeast Asia, East Asia and the Pacific (AESEAP) and the International Federation of Engineering Education Societies (IFEES). JSEE is the principal engineering society to support Japan Accreditation Board for Engineering Education (JABEE) which joined the Washington Accord as a full signatory member in 2005.

JSEE International Session

JSEE has been holding the international session during its annual conference since 2006 to enhance the international communication and collaboration which are essential for both accreditation of engineering education and the certification of professional engineers. In the cases of students' presentations, teachers should be the coauthors and attend their talks.

International Session Award

From JSEE Annual Conference 2015, an outstanding presentation will be awarded as the best presentation of the International Session. The full-paper for the awarded presentation will be published in Journal of JSEE. The fee for the publication will be supported by JSEE. For more information, please see the announcement.

Themes

The theme for JSEE International Session 2021 is "International Cooperation in Engineering Education - Creation of new learning places and quality guarantee in engineering education -". Authors are invited to submit their paper proposals for the presentation.
